RABBIT SHOW RULES

This is an official A.R.B.A. Show
If you are a member of a specialty club, state so on the entry form.

1. The Small Animal Show Rules and State and Local Rules, found in Small Animal information, apply to this Department. Please read them carefully.
2. Rules, definitions and judging procedures, as prescribed in the latest edition of the Standard of Perfection from the American Rabbit Breeders Association, Inc. shall apply to the San Diego County Fair Rabbit Show, provided they do not conflict with any of the State Rules.
3. JUDGING: Rabbits that are entered in the wrong class and those absent at the time of judging do not count when computing the number of exhibits in the variety.
4. A judge may disqualify a rabbit from competition because of temporary or curable defects or viciousness, but the rabbit will be counted as an entry.
5. All cage locks must be removed by the exhibitor prior to judging. Failure to do so will prevent the rabbit from being judged.
6. All rabbits must be identified by permanent ear markings in the left ear conforming to the information on the entry form. Animals not marked with legible and permanent tattoo will be barred from competition. Any duplication of ear markings by one exhibitor in the same class will be disqualified from competition. Animals must be tattooed prior to delivery. At time of check-in, all rabbits to have correct coop number placed in the rabbit's right ear. Failure to do so will disqualify the rabbit from competition. It is the exhibitor's responsibility to have this done before rabbits are cooped.
7. Exhibitors please provide the following information when filling out the entry form. The information will aid the livestock staff in placing all entries in correct classes and speed up your check-in process.
 - A. Exhibitor must name the breed and/or color on the entry form when entering in any A.V. or A.O.V. Division.
 - B. State the variety when entering an A.O.V. Division/Class.
 - C. When entering a light or heavy miscellaneous Division/Class, state breed and variety.

NOTE: The Miscellaneous Division of Heavyweight or Lightweight Breeds will apply to all standard breeds as prescribed by the latest edition of the A.R.B.A. Inc. Standard of Perfection. They will be judged as one Division, regardless of the number of entries, breed or variety.
8. If an animal is quarantined prior to judging, it will not be allowed on the show table.
9. Houses, partitions, toys and signs will not be permitted unless approved by San Diego County Fair Livestock Coordinator or Assistant Coordinator. Exhibitors found in violation of this rule will be asked to remove their animals and will forfeit all premiums and awards.
